Note: Alternative News (Alt-News) is the last of the real free press in the world. Mainstream Media (MSM) news is corporate owned and only repeats with the US government wants people to hear. There are however different genres of "Alt-News." for example there is "local art/entertainment" Alt-News. However, that is different. On my "Alt-News Review" internet site, I cover the Social Justice/Anti-Empire genre of alternative news. A list of those publications can be found on this page of my website.

注：另类新闻 (Alt-News) 是世界上最后一种真正的自由新闻。主流媒体 (MSM) 的新闻由企业拥有，只重复美国政府希望人们听到的内容。不过，"另类新闻"也有不同的流派，例如有 "本地艺术/娱乐" 另类新闻。然而，这又有所不同。在我的 "另类新闻评论" 网站上，我报道社会正义/反帝国类型的另类新闻。这些出版物的清单可以在我网站的这个页面上找到。

The four references that spell global destruction

American media defamation of China in 2023 is out of control-and Wikipedia is playing a key role in that disinformation process. This article briefly examines a Wikipedia "list of genocides" citing a(n) (imaginary) genocide occurring in Xinjiang (2014-present), on the same list as genocides in Rwanda, Darfur, Bosnia, Myanmar, Nazi crimes against the Polish nation, etc. in which hundreds of thousands of people were murdered. If you want another world war, please just ignore this article. If you don't want another world war, please read it, and more importantly read all of the linked references. Then, if you agree the theme of this article is proven by the investigative reports cited within, please contact your elected representatives and insist they pay more attention to this issue and work steadfastly against the seemingly unstoppable US drive for a build-up to a war against China.

2023.08.15 Interview with Robert F Kennedy Jr. Alleges Longstanding Ongoing US Violation of the Biological Weapons Convention (BWC)

采访小罗伯特-肯尼迪--指控美国长期持续违反《生物武器公约》(BWC)

Kennedy made some very interesting points. Being part of the “Kennedy clan” he has unusual resources inside the US defense department. The Most Massive Coverup in World History and Harbinger of Humanities End? August 15, 2023 How a US Government directed false-flag Anthrax attack a week after 9/11 led to erasing the US Constitution and Bill of Rights, and used to restart wildly illegal gain-of-function bioweapons research in violation of the BWC. An interview with RFK Jr. by Carlson Tucker and analysis. [Do most Americans really care? No. Why not? They’re hostages the same as everyone else in the world. You complain and you lose you job, get smeared and will be lucky if you don’t end up in a mental hospital, prison or dead. He stands no chance of being President. As for Carlson Tucker? He lost his job, didn’t he? Though he continues on X (formerly Twitter). Lucky he was rich so he’s not homeless and freezing to death on the streets of NY, as this writer will be if I have to return to the USA! That’s AMERICAN style!]

2022.09.12 Slavery and the CIA's Never-Ending MK-ULTRA Project
奴隶制与中情局永无止境的 MK-ULTRA 项目

Given the vast array of current CIA, DoD, DARPA, university, hospital, foundation and private institute research projects that had their roots in the CIA's MK-ULTRA program, the vast array of US government censorship mechanisms, the vast array of human trafficking networks around the world, the seemingly unlimited budgets of the crime-infested CIA and DoD, the vast arrays of testimonies by MK-ULTRA and derivative program victims and survivors, ranging from the first generation in the 50s and 60s to Epstein related survivors, and survivors of CIA black sites, ongoing CIA torture programs, illegal data collection and secrecy by the CIA and the Senate, and extensive corruption in the judiciary, one can only wonder if the outrageous, unconscionable and wildly illegal MK-ULTRA ever ended or ever will end. Whereas some might assert that Nazi research should have gone to the grave with the monsters that originated that research, credible and referenced evidence presented in this article strongly suggests MK-ULTRA has not ended but continues albeit under different names, and better concealed funding sources. For the surviving victims of that research, healing is rather difficult or impossible when victim survivors continue to be harassed and intimidated for the crime of speaking out. That the CIA continues to illegally collect information on Americans does not help, for there is nowhere on planet earth for such individuals to find peace or any kind of security. January 2023 will mark fifty years since the MK-ULTRA program officially ended, and that would be a good demarcation point for the US government to express genuine remorse, and pay compensation to those who survived. For more than 40 years claims of "Sovereign Immunity" have protected the CIA from criminal prosecution for mind-control experiments inflicted upon children in the US. Primarily statute of limitations laws have prevented subjects from seeking compensation through civil litigation. According to Wright (2005) "No person who was the subject of CIA and military mind-control experiments as a child has ever received any settlement from the U.S. government." The Conclusion of this article reports on methods of recovery from Dissociative Identity Disorder used by some victims of CIA research on children in the 1950s and 1960s, suggests the formation of a resource center for former MK-ULTRA and related research subjects, and suggests the Supreme Court of the US could facilitate justice for the surviving victims of the MK-ULTRA program and possibly prevent WWII, if they were to reaffirm First Amendment protection of free speech, press and redress of grievances.

2021.08.20 COVID-19 has laid naked the absolute tyranny of global capitalism
COVID-19 赤裸裸地揭露了全球资本主义的绝对暴政

“As many as 11 people are likely dying of hunger and malnutrition each minute. This is more than the current global death rate of COVID-19, which is around seven people per minute.” If you fight against tyranny, the tyrants will brand you a criminal, or these days most likely a terrorist. In either case the penalty is at best marginalization, and increasingly death or imprisonment (Edward Snowden / Julian Assange), unless perhaps you have a rather large, dauntless gang supporting you, like the Taliban for example. / If you argue against tyranny, maybe, if you are lucky, they will only call you a terrorist or communist sympathizer. In either case your speech will be censored and you will, one way or another, sooner or later, be punished. If you repent and join the capitalist war machine robbing and murdering the innocent, maybe your existence will be tolerated.

中世纪的美国--折磨和杀害异端科学家、记者和穷人

In this article the writer posits that most of the world today is deeply mired in a replay of the Medieval Era as the result of increasingly widespread political corruption and corporate control over news and entertainment media. Increasing corporate control of news and entertainment media orchestrated by national and international intelligence organizations has reduced individual freedoms to below zero in most countries. This “problem” has also led to what can be termed “fake democracies” in that intelligence organizations, via corporate controlled news organizations determine who runs for elections and who wins those elections.

关闭中情局的 "魔笛手计划" - 是时候停止抨击中国了，尤其是在教育机构中

July 13, 2021, Silk Road Virtual University

The American disinformation machine is illegal interference in the affairs of other nations. It is illegal by American and international law. I was looking through the internet sites of some foreign universities in China recently and found links to disturbing American government funded articles that are part of the "Color Revolution" movement the US has used in many countries to overthrow governments. In this article I refer to the original template program called "Pied Piper." It's been "upgraded" but it's the same illegal interference in other nations. During the 1st Cold War there were some rules, like keeping families out of it at least most of the time. This new American driven Cold War takes direct aim at families. It is concluded Americans with a moral conscience need to be much more politically active to end these abuses of power and waste of American tax payer money. Cutting the world in two is not a solution to problems in the USA. The US has to fix itself before preaching to other nations how to govern their own nations, and attacking families and youth is vile and illegal.

2021, June 25 A Brief Review of American Censorship Mechanisms and Laws

Prohibiting It

简评美国的审查机制和禁止审查的法律

Censorship is the death knell of democracy. This article reviews most of the above-surface US government and government affiliated organizations and mechanisms used to censor the news, followed by a review of Constitutional, statutory, and case law including SCOTUS decisions prohibiting censorship of the news.

新闻检查是民主的丧钟。本文回顾了大多数美国政府及政府附属机构和机制用于新闻审查的情况，随后回顾了禁止新闻审查的宪法、成文法和判例法，包括最高法院（SCOTUS）的裁决。

This article is the most complete and succinct review of those censorship mechanisms and laws, with linked references published to date. It was written in such a way as to motivate the Supreme Court to reverse its decision in Citizens United vs. FEC, overturn subsequent decisions that have resulted in Super-PAC unlimited anonymous campaign finance "donations," and issue a cease-and-desist order on current censorship organizations. Additional motivation is provided by a glimpse into how SCOTUS will be remembered in history if they fail to act quickly.

2021, June 22 Euro America's criminal leadership and the Chinese Bogeyman
欧洲美国的犯罪领导层和 "中国妖怪"

This article looks at the rapidly escalating American and NATO aggression and potential war against China, the responsible parties and some possible realistic ways to short-circuit those systems. After finishing the previous article, I noticed an NYT article that appeared to be engaging in psychological operations to prepare Americans for a war against China. Then I realized: Most of the promoters of war are not "mentally ill," but rather simple profit motivated criminals. What to do about them? In this article I suggest the Supreme Court, the US Attorney General, and possibly Pope Francis could play a positive role in ending American wars of aggression against innocent countries. It is concluded that reopening Château d'If Prison to house the most recalcitrant criminals might be warranted, which by the way is an absurd but humorous suggestion if one knows the history of that particular prison. Given a choice between the very humane therapy in my June 17th article (see below), and the more dire consequences of continuing their criminal careers, one might think the former the far more attractive option.

关于基于网络的新公正联合国大会的建议

There is a lot most people don't know about the details of the internal structure of the UN like the fact it was designed to be a failure at keeping the peace from the beginning. Instead, it was designed as a tool of western hegemonic expansion. If the reader doesn't believe it, read this proposal and check the original UN Charter. This is a project proposal to streamline UN systems, give it the opportunity to self-correct if possible or replace it with the very low budget, highly efficient model briefly presented in this proposal.

The “Strategic Competition Act,” introduced in the Senate

Could they have been influenced by at least my first two articles on that malign legislation? Probably not, but one never knows. In any case I cannot be accused of being behind the news.

Book, <https://www.amazon.com/dp/B09HTCMRLS>

ISBN 9798490756170

In this epic adventure the wandering Silk Road martial artist Gregory Brundage takes the readers along the ancient and modern Silk Roads to visit Taekwondo Federation officials, masters, coaches, teams, clubs and students in addition to other local martial art centers, in Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Turkey and China, in each country he interviewed and photographed the masters and students, usually training with them, and visited the major Silk Road sites, museums and other cultural landmarks. This book emphasizes the commonalities and unity of martial artists across the entire continent of Asia from China to Turkey, bonded by love of the arts, self discipline, mutual respect with a healthy dose of fun mixed in. To top it off the incredible artistic beauty of the ancient worlds he traveled are brought to life in large color photos complete with illuminating historical narrative. This Silk Road martial art book reaches back 5,000 years and interplays that passion and drama with the best of human qualities today.

Going to schools in different countries starting in 1963 at age six, writer Gregory Brundage had to fight a lot. So, when 1969 rolled around and he started Taekwondo it was nothing less than mianma from heaven and he took to it like a fish in water. By 1984 when he started Graduate School, he'd had a 14-year competition career in several martial arts with Taekwondo being tops in his style because he loves high kicking fun. He's trained and sweat with martial artists of all five continents and doesn't plan on stopping till he's a hundred years old, if then.

<https://thegreatlinking.files.wordpress.com/2021/07/1-my-academia-analytic-report-from-2017-to-june-2021.docx>

The beginning of my Alt-News career

I started writing alternative news (alt-news) in 1971 in high school with an underground newspaper that combined in-school satire about some teachers, and anti-Vietnam War and other social issue short articles. My skills in those areas evolved quite rapidly in 1988 working for my city's largest African American newspaper the Milwaukee Community Journal (MCJ).

When I worked at MCJ it dealt with highly controversial issues involving racism and social injustice with many investigative reports. Nowadays it is just a pale shadow of its former glory, publishing almost exclusively "feel-good" articles, although the crusty old (former) editor Mikel Holt does add some reality with some great hard-hitting ed/ops. One primary reason for the changes in Editorial policy is undoubtedly fear. Milwaukee, for at least the past 35 years has been the most racially segregated city in the USA, and there are several aggressive white supremacist hate groups in the state that could benefit from some counseling and in some cases perhaps even psychiatric interventions.

I resigned that highly educational and challenging job when I moved to Malaysia in 1992 where I wrote for Malaysia's two largest national newspapers (The New Straits Times and The Star) and magazines (e.g., Suara Masjid Negara, Islamic Herald, and Asian Defense Journal).

In South Korea I regularly published in two national newspapers (Korea Times and Korea Herald). In China, I briefly wrote for Global Times Newspaper. On the side I have written for and published in several martial art magazines in the US (e.g., Kung Fu Magazine, Taekwondo Times, Black Belt Magazine) and Japan (Kendo World).

This is an older publication list with some scans I posted on an internet site about 15 years ago: <https://goldstonepencil.tripod.com/id2.html>

Below is some my more recent work. My biggest audiences for the past five years are academic on <https://uwm.academia.edu/GregBrundage>, Scribd.com, my Silk Road Virtual University publication page, and the world's largest alt-news host: Substack.com where I host the e-zine: <https://altnewsreview.substack.com>. All of the above are blocked in China now except academia.edu. One can not blame Chinese authorities for that. Instead, responsibility belongs to those who promote wars based on false claims, provocation, and other hubris-led objectives and strategies. One of the challenges of having a large population is some will be vulnerable to psyops driven “strategic disinformation.” From its inception, American leaders have embraced genocide and the lies that conceal it from their children.

Besides the more obvious censorship, my audiences are not large also partly because my alt-news publications are written primarily for academic audiences.

Most alt-news writers write articles targeting the general reading public with word counts from 500 to at most 3,000 words. I on the other hand tend to include more historical and legal background leading to today’s news, as well as anthropological, evolutionary, medical, psychological, sociological, and statistical analysis and references. I also write what might be termed: “alt-history” books, as counter-points to the vast majority of western mainstream history books that are examples of historical revisionism, whitewashing the brutal realities of the past (and current) 500 years of western colonialism.

Overview of my writing and this bibliography

This is not a complete bibliography as I started writing professionally in 1980, and was a reporter for the Black Press (African American newspapers) in the US for four years (1988 - 1992) before moving to Malaysia where I worked first as a stinger for the daily national newspaper New Straits Times, then went freelance as it paid better and I had a family.

I don’t have records of most of the things I published during the past 43 years as I move often. And so below are only samplings of much larger bodies of professional work.

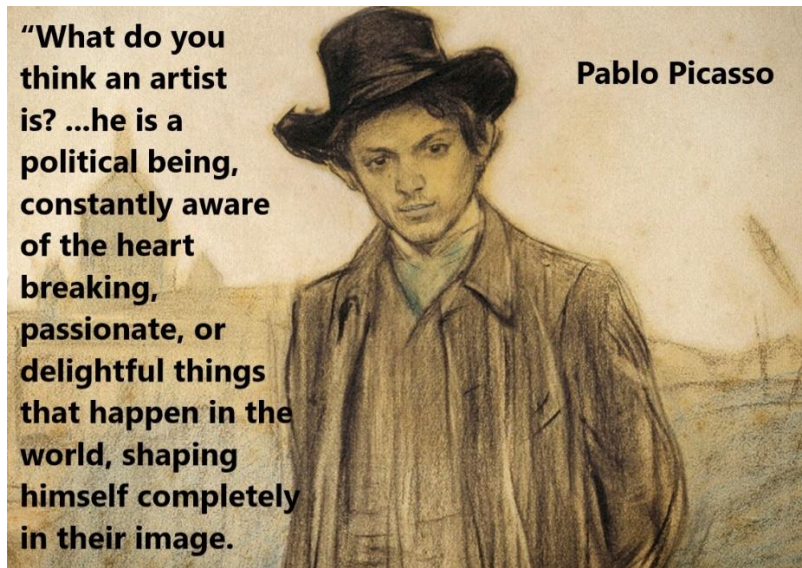

Having traveled on all five continents since age six in 1963, and having been a voracious reader of books and newspapers from very early ages, and professional journals during my 15-year university student career, I am uniquely qualified to write alt-news. Likewise, having been a minority in most places during my life cultivated empathy for the under-represented and distain for bullies and sadists.

I started martial art training in Judo in 1969, Taekwondo (later that same year), Karate in 1970 and several styles of Wushu Kung Fu and Yoga (1972) and never stopped that training. That training started in the US, continued in Europe and South America, and since 1992 in Asia with a brief time in Ethiopia in 2018.

I have always kept my martial arts & sports “happy cultural exchange” writing totally compartmentalized from my alt-news writing.

However, due to the New Cold War, I have recently been obstructed from my “happy cultural exchange” writing on several fronts.

If we have the abilities required, I believe we should work in promoting better understanding between individuals and groups (via arts, sciences and sports on one hand), and illuminating and resisting injustice on the other. An individual that does both should commended, not punished for that versatility.

However, keeping them separate is a good idea. For examples, children’s cartoons that are really war propaganda movies in disguise such as Disney produces these days, are deceptive and not conducive to peaceful dreams and emotionally secure childhoods.

There are times when happy cultural exchange is most useful for bringing people together and mental health, and there are times when social injustices are of such magnitude they must be addressed.

Those who close their eyes to either side of that dichotomy might find a lack of balance in their lives and vision of the world.

That should be obvious to even the most truculent of observers and arguments to the contrary are spurious at best.

Mindlessly aping hegemonic tendencies is strongly counterproductive to the attainment of self-determination in the global south, AKA nations of people of color around the world. "Divide et impera!" as the Romans used to say.

My publications since 2008 when I first visited China can be divided into two groups. The first group relates to cultural exchange between China and the Silk Roads, and the US and Europe. That represents the fun, harmonious and inclusive part of the writing I've done.

In 2017 however I branched out and started using an alternative news (alt-news) style of writing – beginning with a book titled: White "Christian" Terrorism - Three Hundred and Fifty-Seven Million Reasons You Should Work for Peace. That expansion of my repertory of writing was compelled by both international and local forces at that time.

A great deal of the historical information in that book I took from memory, as my father, a well-known historian discussed most of those topics with his colleagues at great length and repeatedly when I was a child. Consequently, conceptually at least that book was easy for me to write. All I had to do was look up references to prove various statements I'd heard so often as a child. Additionally, I built a data-base of people who had been killed by what could arguably be called "White 'Christian' Terrorists," since the year 325 and a series of events that occurred in Nicaea (now İznik, Turkey) of the Eastern Roman Empire.

After that I wrote a sequel, titled: White "Christian" Terrorism II - Age of the Caligulas."

About a month later I authored another book titled: Time-Critical Need for Restructuring the United Nations - Glimmers of Hope from the ICC or Just Another Distraction Paving the Way to WWII?

Since writing that third book, I received an answer to the question posed in the title, when the ICC dropped its investigation into the American Department of Defense's war crimes in Afghanistan, and thus, "Just Another Distraction Paving the Way to WWII," is the correct answer to that rhetorical question. After penning that work, I started writing alt-news articles.

My articles tend to be longer than typical "alt-news" articles, because I like to include history and law as part of my reviews of current events. History and Canon law (Catholic Church law) in particular were specialties of my father and subjects I heard a great deal about as a child.

Most of the alternative history/news and books were posted/published on Academia.edu, and/or Scribd, and/or one of my own internet site's publication page titled: "Silk Road Virtual University Press."

Unfortunately, my Silk Road Virtual University internet site was hosted on Weebly.com, and all of those sites were banned in China, no doubt because some other people were using Weebly.com to unjustly smear China.

I was happy when I found out Wordpress.com – the world's largest web-host was and as of this writing – still is not banned in China.

All of my writing is heavily de-ranked by the illegal censorship algorithms of Google, MSN and other browsers, in addition to other American and British censorship mechanisms like Shadow Regulation. The oppressiveness and violence directed towards journalists these days is extraordinary.

Anti-war/social justice academic writers have come under special scrutiny and assaults by promoters of the western hegemonic empire in recent years.

That was after I wrote an article about censorship in the US; links to it can be found on my bibliography above.

Without a link-list to anti-war/social just alt-news publications, supplemented with a bibliography, finding objective investigatory news could be difficult at best due to algorithmic and other censorship mechanisms.

In April 2021 I started a Substack account – with Substack being the primary venue for anti-war/social justice alt-news writers these days.

As the corporate America keeps firing and otherwise marginalizing journalists and even comedians who question the foundational belief of western hegemony in perpetuity, more and more very high-power and professional investigative reporters are now mainly or exclusively publishing on Substack.

However, because there are also trouble-makers – mostly working for the US and UK governments also publishing on Substack, it too is banned in China and I cannot continue publishing there, nor can I read most of the best alt-news being published. Believing that defeating the freedom of the press is something like winning a football game, the promoters of the western empire are totally undermining the democracies they claim to represent.

My Foundation Beliefs

I detest violence and know that violence only causes more violence in ever-increasing spirals and only very few people profit from the misery of a great many. Eventually communication and education are the only cures to end those vicious cycles.

Whereas it is true, self-defense, and defense of the innocent is a requirement of all people of conscience, in examining who really is the guilty party in conflicts one must ascertain: “Who profits from this crime?”

In virtually all armed conflicts during the past 500 years, it has been the wealthy classes in the USA and Europe that have profited from those crimes – and all wars are crimes.

Over the years, from 1969 on, I learned that unrestrained capitalism of Europe and the USA is responsible for the massive killings inflicted upon the world, including the nine million human beings that starve to death every year, and the unending series of the wars the Euro-Americans instigate and endlessly escalate.

I also learned that Socrates was right, Democracy always ends in tyranny. And so, I have been a socialist ever since about 1969.

How can a Muslim be “socialist?” In fact, that term is rather vague and refers to a wide range of beliefs.

All great religions teach “help the poor” - a socialist kind of thing to do.

On a scale with “Unrestrained Capitalism” (the Euro-American system) on the far right and total communist on the far left, socialism and the great religions both emerge center-left, with Islam being the only great religion to specify a) taxation laws to help the poor, b) guaranteeing marital property rights, and c) strong recommendations and rewards for freeing slaves.

在极右翼的“无拘无束的资本主义”（欧美体系）和极左翼的完全共产主义的尺度上，社会主义和伟大的宗教都出现了中左翼。伊斯兰教是唯

—一个明确 a) 税法以帮助穷人, b) 保障婚姻财产权, c) 释放奴隶的强烈建议和奖励的伟大宗教。
